

April 24, 1939.

Mr. John Borican,
272 Manhattan Ave.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Borican:

This letter is just to remind you that I am looking forward to having you throw out the first ball at the Opening Game of the Negro National League Baseball at Ruppert Stadium on Sunday, May 7th.

The ceremonies start at 2 O'clock, you should get to the Park about 1:30, in fact if you come to Newark sooner I will arrange to take you down or have you taken down.

Would appreciate a note from you, assuring me of your presence.

Yours very truly,
